GRANVILLE MAN MEETS TRAGIC END

Killed in Auto Accident at Philadelphia on City Street

MACHINE TURNED TURTLE

Pinned A. Judson Carter
Under Car and He Died
From Injuries Shortly After—Was Tobacco Salesman.

Word was received at his home in Granville of a fatal injury and later of the death of A. Judson Carter, a tobacco salesman in Philadelphia on Wednesday. Mr. Carter with a companion was in an automobile when it turned turtle, and was so seriously injured that death resulted. He had just been promoted to the position of assistant sales manager and his new duties took him to the eastern city.

For a number of years Mr. Carter has been employed by the Bloch Brothers of Wheeling, W. Va., manufacturers of Mail Pouch tobacco, as salesman. He was promoted to the position of district sales manager and within the last few weeks received the merited position of assistant sales manager for the company. His work took him to the larger eastern cities and it was in Philadelphia that the accident which resulted in his death occurred.

Mr. Carter, in company with David Deen of Philadelphia, was riding in an automobile when the machine turned turtle, after a three-mile race with motorcycle policemen in pursuit.

The driver was speeding the machine and in order to avoid arrest the race with the police resulted. According to the statement given out by the police, the machine was coming down the street at a rate of 45 miles an hour when the policeman took after them. They were about to overtake the machine when in attempting to avoid another vehicle it swerved and turned turtle. Deen, who was driving, was thrown out, while Mr. Carter was pinned beneath the car.

He was found to be seriously injured and removed to a hospital. Word was sent to his wife at Granville, but the word had scarcely been received when it was followed by another telegram telling of his death.

Mr. Carter was born in Johnstown, and throughout the county and city has a large circle of friends who will be shocked to learn of his death. His territory in the past included Newark and he is well known to the merchants here. He married Miss Elsie Rexrothe of Newark, and they have one daughter, Velma, age 6, who lives in Granville.

The body will be brought to Granville and it is probable that the funeral will be held on Saturday.

MOTORCYCLE COLLISION; 2 INJURED

Number of American Entries at International Horse Show at Olympia

[Associated Press Telegram]
London, June 19.—The outstanding features of this year's International Horse Show at Olympia, which opened today with over 4,000 entries and 111 classes is the riding and jumping competition for the Kew gold cup for teams of three officers representing the armies of the various nations. The American army is unrepresented on this occasion but the keenest rivalry exists among the seven other entries, France, Great Britain, Canada, Italy, Russia and Sweden.

France has won the cup twice and the French cavalry officers will make a desperate effort to win it for the third time and take it with them across the channel as their permanent property. Russia and Belgium have won the cup once each. England does not want the trophy to become the property of a foreign power and 100 British cavalry officers have been training for its defense at various army posts for several months. In the other competitions American horses are not quite so numerous as in former years. Judge H. W. Moore of Philadelphia is one of the lightest exhibitors with about forty carriage and coach horses.

A new American competitor is Edward B. McLean of Washington with a stable of eight horses which have been insured for $100,000.

J. Sumner Draper of Boston, Alfred G. Vanderbilt and Walter Winans are other American exhibitors.

Some valuable prizes have been offered by Americans, including the Newport cup, given by Alfred G. Vanderbilt for the best single harness horse. The two cups given by Colonel Lawrence Jones of Louisville, Ky., for the best harness horse exceeding 15 hands and for two hack horses under 15 hands, the National Horse Show Association's cup for tandems and the Harkaway Hunt club's cup for qualified hunters.

Make Things Right at Home.

(By Chalmers J. Panoast.)

Thousands of dollars may be spent in advertising a city, but if the conditions are not right at home the progressive citizen arrives on the scene, looks the place over, is dissatisfied with the local aspect and leaves to hunt a better town.

The wide-awake city where there is something astir, and where the people take pride in making things as they should be, is the city which will attract and hold the outsider looking for a place to locate.

City and County Officials to Wage War on Speeders and Punish Law Violators

"We're going to break up this thing of speeding, whether it applies to automobiles, motorcycles or horse drawn vehicles. The police are instructed to make arrests and from now on extra precautions will be used to catch every driver running his vehicle at any more than a sane speed."—Mayor F. M. Swartz.

A war on speed violators, directed by county authorities, is about to be launched. Automobile and motorcycle drivers are in for a siege unless close observation on the part of authorities should happen by any chance to meet with no encouragement. With the announcement by Prosecutor J. Howard Jones, that violators of the state speed law will be arrested and prosecuted, comes a like denunciation of reckless driving from other sources.

Recent motorcycle accidents have drawn attention of juvenile authorities to the number of young girls riding tandem with drivers of the wheeled vehicles. Probation Officers John Dwyer and Mrs. Mary Miller announce that in the future special attention will be given to the occupants of the rear seats of motorcycles. The officers of the juvenile court say girls under age have no business riding motorcycles, especially after night, when most of the dangerous speeding is done.

The outer districts of Newark will offer no more opportunity for disregard of the authorities than downtown sections, say the officers, for all sections of the town will be placed under espionage, and all suspects will be compelled to dismount and will be in danger of arrest.

Police Chief Sheridan has given all patrolmen special instructions to watch for speed violators, take numbers of machines traveling at excessive speed, and make arrests wherever violations occur. No excuse will be accepted in a plea of "first offense," declares the chief.

STRIKE PROBERS RETURN

Strenuous Week of Investigation in West Virginia Coal Fields

WILL RESUME HEARINGS

In Washington in a Few Weeks—Coal Operators
to Press Complaint
That Sen. Martine
Has Prejudiced Case.

[Associated Press Telegram]
Washington, June 19.—Three fired United States senators came back to Washington today after a week of strenuous investigation in the coal strike district of West Virginia. Senators Swanson, Kenyon and Martin, who concluded for a time their examination of witnesses at Charleston yesterday, returned to the senate to take up their legislative duties. During a week in Charleston the committee heard a hundred witnesses, worked ten or twelve hours a day, often sitting until after midnight and took about one million words of testimony.

The committee will resume hearings in Washington in a few weeks and will take up the charge of the West Virginia coal operators that the Miners' Union is in league with operators in the competitive fields of Pennsylvania, Ohio, Indiana and Illinois to ruin the West Virginia industry.

When the committee resumes the coal operators will press their complaint that Senator Martin has prejudiced the case against them. They will ask to be allowed to place in the record written statements by Senator Martin criticising the operators. The attitude of Senator Martin will be taken up by the subcommittee and probably will be presented to the full committee on education and labor.

VENGEANCE WAS MOTIVE OF WILL SAY CONTESTANTS

[Associated Press Telegram]
Atlanta, Ga., June 19.—Relatives of Mrs. Barbara Dodd, a wealthy Atlanta woman, who died recently leaving $100,000 to Mercer university, and large sums to charity, will attempt to prove in Superior court that they were cut off by Mrs. Dodd because certain of them had refused to kill or maim Dr. J. H. Garner, Mrs. Dodd's divorced husband.

These charges are made in an appeal from the ruling of the Fulton county ordinary court, who recently upheld the will.

Mrs. Dodd was the widow of Phillip Dodd, a merchant of Atlanta. After his death she was married Dr. Garner, from whom she was divorced. In gaining the right to carry the case to the Superior court, Mrs. Dodd's relatives attacked the will and charged that she attempted to get several of them to kill Dr. Garner or injure him by throwing vitriol in his face.

TEN KILLED IN A COLLISION ON ELECTRIC LINE

[Associated Press Telegram]
San Francisco, June 19.—Ten are dead and twenty-five injured in a collision on the Napa Valley Transportation company's electric line near Vallejo today according to advices received by the Southern Pacific company which has held one of its trains to care for the victims.

The front cars of both trains were completely telescoped by the force of the collision. The victims were pinned down by the wreckage and fire apparatus and house moving outfit, at work nearby, were used to free them.

Ten men, all from nearby towns, it is believed, and a little girl, unidentified, were killed.

ENGINEERS AND FIREMEN JOIN ICE MEN'S STRIKE

[Associated Press Telegram]
Cincinnati, O., June 19.—The engineers and firemen's union officials decided today to call out their men at plants where ice wagon drivers and helpers are on strike for higher wages and shorter hours. This will cripple many of the plants and cause further inconvenience and suffering.

Mayor Hunt made another effort today to settle the strike, but was unsuccessful, the ice manufacturers refusing to meet a committee of the strikers.

General Manager Stone of the Associated Press Testifies in Lobby Probe

[Associated Press Telegram]
Washington, June 19.—Melville E. Stone, general manager of the Associated Press testified at his own request today before the Senate Lobby committee regarding the claims contained in some of the correspondence of Clarence C. Hamlin, as to publicity beet sugar men had hoped to obtain through the Associated Press. Hamlin's letters had been read into the Committee's records two days ago after having been subpoenaed from the field of the United States Beet Sugar industry.

Before Mr. Stone took the chair, Senator Newland took the witness chair to make a brief statement concerning the use of his name in correspondence introduced yesterday.

Mr. Stone presented all his letters and records bearing on the demands of the Beet Sugar interests for publicity through the new association. He testified that, October 1911, John A. Arbutle, a sugar refiner when leaving for Europe, gave out an interview favoring free raw sugar. That interview was carried by the Associated Press, he said. On October 15, a short interview given out by Clarence C. Hamlin at Colorado Springs, answering the Arbutle interview was also carried by the Associated Press. The Arbutle statement he said was about 1,000 words long, the Hamlin statement about 150 words.

Mr. Hamlin then wrote Mr. Stone asking that the beet sugar interests be given as good treatment as the sugar refiners. Mr. Hamlin's letter was: "I am writing you as chairman of the United States Beet Sugar industry, an organization which includes practically all the beet sugar interests of this country, and if anything further is necessary to give that which I have to say

FORMER CASHIER CHARGED WITH EMBEZZLEMENT

[Associated Press Telegram]
Akron, O., June 19.—James M. Wolfinger of Cleveland pleaded not guilty to the charge of embezzling funds of the Cuyahoga Falls Savings Bank when arraigned before Mayor Taylor of Cuyahoga Falls this morning.

Wolfinger was a former cashier of the bank and the shortage which, it is said, will reach $1200, was discovered by state bank examiners.

He is now an employee of the Ohio Cutting Sales company of Cleveland, having resigned his position with the Cuyahoga Falls bank last January.

The bank is fully protected on the shortage by Wolfinger's bondsmen. He was arrested on the charge of embezzlement late Wednesday.

COMPLETE SCHEDULE REVISION

Changes in the Tariff Bill
Will Increase Revenue
About $9,000,000

MANY REDUCTIONS MADE

And Number of Additions to Free List are Recommended—Democrats to Caucus Tomorrow.

[Associated Press Telegram]
Washington, June 19.—Democratic members of the Senate Finance committee who have completed their revision of the rate schedules in the Underwood tariff bill, making many reductions in nearly every schedule and additions to the free list, declare that the total of their alterations will increase the estimated revenue to be derived from the bill as it passed the house by more than five million dollars.

The bulk of this increase has been provided by taking bananas from the free list and making them dutiable at five cents a bunch, on the ground that they are controlled absolutely by a monopoly, and by the repeal of an act which exempted brandies used in fortifying wines from the full international revenue tax of $1.10 a gallon. These two changes, the committee estimates, will bring in an annual revenue of about $9,000,000.

Senator Kern, the majority leader sent out today a call for all democratic senators to attend the party caucus tomorrow when there will begin final consideration of the tariff measure before it is reported to the senate for general debate. The majority of the finance committee continued work today on the administrative section of the bill.

BIPLANE TURNS OVER KILLING 2 PASSENGERS

[Associated Press Telegram]
Berlin, June 19.—Two German air-men were killed this morning at the Johannisthal Aerodrome. Aviator Kraft, carrying a passenger named Gerblitz, had ascended with the intention of making a two hours flight. There was practically no wind and the biplane was making good speed when it suddenly turned a somersault at a height of a hundred feet, throwing its passengers to the ground dead.

Administration Currency Bill Will be Whipped Into Shape by Party Leaders

[Associated Press Telegram]
Washington, June 19.—Administration leaders today began an earnest effort to whip the currency bill into final shape and get into accord on every detail. With fundamentals and essentials agreed upon by President Wilson, Secretary McAdoo and Chairman Owen and Glass of the senate and House Banking and Currency committee's the leaders today and tomorrow will attempt to perfect it as an administration measure.

The fundamentals of the bill as agreed upon have been published from time to time. The measure would revolutionize the banking and currency system of the United States and it has been the aim of its framers to place the financial system, especially the issue of currency under the control of the government.

As now agreed upon the country would be divided into not less than twelve National Reserve associations, and all National banks will be compelled to become members of the Reserve association in their respective districts. States banks will be eligible to membership. The Reserve association will organize Federal Reserve banks in each district with a minimum capital of $5,000,000, which will be supplied by the membership banks at a rate of 20 per cent of their capital. These reserve banks will receive the deposits of the Federal government and thus prevent the treasury department from locking up great quantities of money from circulation. The Reserve bank will be a bank of banks with the privilege of re-discounting commercial paper.

In the place of the National bank notes, which will be retired over a period of 20 years, the government will issue to the Federal reserve banks a new kind of currency, probably to be designated as Federal reserve treasury notes.

"The limit of this issue will be $500,000,000 and it will be backed by commercial paper of prime quality, or other valuable securities. Elasticity will be given the system in this manner. While these notes will not be secured by gold they will be redeemable in gold by the treasury or the Federal reserve banks. Means are taken to protect the United States two per cent bonds which now form the securities for the National bank notes by permitting the graduate retirement of these notes over a period of years and their exchange for three per cent bonds without the circulating privilege

Thursday--Half-Holiday

Business in Newark was practically suspended at noon today. For some time past notices have appeared in the Daily Papers telling the people to make their arrangements for this Half Holiday.

The people gradually make their arrangements to enjoy this half holiday with the merchants of the city during the summer months. To be sure there will be a few who will in all probability be discommoded for a few weeks until they become accustomed to the new order of things.

The people will gradually make their arrangements to enjoy this half holiday with the merchants of the city during the that after they and their employees have enjoyed this half day of recreation, they, as well as their employees, are better able to serve the people.

DOES HEINEY WANT THE $100? SEE 'IM GRAB IT

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)
Chicago, June 19.—Heiney Zimmerman, the hard hitting third baseman of the Chicago Nationals will receive a $100 bill from an enthusiastic admirer if he can stay in the game for the next two weeks.

The bill was cut in two and sent to the sporting editor of a local newspaper and one-half will be sent to the belligerent ball player today. It is worthless without the other half, which he will receive if he avoids being put out of the game during the next fourteen days. The manager of this unusual proposition said in his letter that two weeks living in harmony with the umpire will do everybody a lot of good. Zimmerman most of all.

So far this season Zimmerman has been put out of the game five times, three times in the last week.

"Hand me half of that bill and watch me get the other," said Zimmerman, when told of the offer. "I'm through fussing with umpires anyway, and don't intend to be put out of the game again this season. I'll be a model on the ball field hereafter."

GYGLI BEST OF ERIE SAILORS

In speaking of the Erie club of the Interstate league, which is going at a mighty fast pace these days, the Dispatch of that city says:

"And among the players who have done much for the success of the club, few deserve more credit than First-baseman Gygli, always on the job, scooping up the low ones and pulling down the lofty. If ever a player was ripe for the big show, it looks that he ought to land. Right now he is the leading base stealer in the league, knows how to get on the pillows and what to do when the emergency arises. In the last two weeks his batting average has increased over 30 per cent and still soaring. He is more than a .300 man with the stick and a .999 on the field. His value to the club is beyond the hope that appears in figures or on paper."

MONEY WASTED

ON FERTILIZERS.

"A great deal of the money spent for commercial fertilizers every year is wasted," said M. A. Bachtell of the College of Agriculture before a crowd of farmers recently. "Commercial fertilizers are a good thing" he continued "but the trouble is that the farmer either does not get the right kind of fertilizer for his land or does not get the worth of his money. Many farmers buy nitrogen when they would better raise it in the form of clover. Others purchase a so-called 'complete' fertilizer paying much more per pound for the plant food than if the three ingredients were purchased separately and mixed at home." A great many farmers will be buying fertilizer and applying it on their wheat ground, in order to help them get the best results from the money they spend for fertilizer, the College of Agriculture has arranged to send Mr. Bachtell to a number of different communities during August and September to give advice in purchasing fertilizers, and to demonstrate home-mixing. In order to secure this assistance which is free simply write to

A. B. Graham, College of Agriculture, Columbus, Ohio.

TO READVERTISE FOR CONTRACTORS ON PIKE WORK

New bidders are to be sought by the board of county commissioners for construction of the Newark-Linnville extension pike. Re-advertisement was authorized by the board before adjournment of its session Wednesday.

Commissioners announce that Contractor W. D. Winchell has abandoned the work. Members of the board pressed Winchell several times to hurry the contract along, but finally gave up in despair. Residents along the pike want the work completed as soon as possible now that it is begun.

COURT NEWS

Divorce Petition.

Charging that his wife Ella would not walk with him on the streets unless his brother Alonzo was along, Elmer Shaffer in an answer and cross petition filed in common pleas court by Attorney J. R. Fitzgibbon, seeks divorce. Mrs. Shaffer recently filed suit for alimony.

Elmer Shaffer intimates that his brother has supplanted him in the affections of his wife. Recently an assault case developed from the strained relations between the brothers. Police reported at that time that the assault occurred when the husband returned home and found his brother in his wife's company. The husband was in a hospital for a short time following the altercation.

In his cross petition the husband charges that his wife has been keeping house for his brother, refusing and neglecting to attend to the duties in her own home and persisting in attending theatres and public gatherings in company with Alonzo. Elmer charges that his wife aided his brother in the alleged assault on him, June 7, as a result of which he was crippled.

Approve Assessments.

The county commissioners have stamped their approval on the report of the county engineer on the assessment apportionment for the paving of East Main street between Madison and O'Bannon avenues. The section of highway was paved under the pike law, the cost being borne proportionately by the trustees of Madison township, the county commissioners and the holders of abutting property.

The paving was completed some time ago.

Chairman W. L. Finley, of the Democratic State Committee, in a letter to the Democratic County Committees, calls attention to the fact that the office of Deputy Tax Commissioner will have no existence until after the November election.

Also that the office of Liquor Tax Commissioner will have no legal existence until the middle of August.

After stating these facts Chairman Finley adds that it "would be a vain and unwise act for a Democratic County Committee, central or executive, to hold a formal meeting and endorse candidates for offices not yet in existence."

Chairman Finley concludes his letter as follows:

"Instead of busying themselves with a fight for patronage that does not exist, it is the politic thing for Democratic committees to begin to prepare immediately to defend the progressive laws proposed by a progressive Democratic Governor and enacted by a progressive Democratic Legislature, which laws are now the object of attack by a combination of the 'interests,' the tax dodgers, the stand-patters and broken down politicians out of a job."

The people who are always short naturally find it hard to get along.

"FARMING THE FARMERS."

The gum-shoe methods of the interests back of the campaign against the Green compulsory workmen's compensation act are now plainly discernible. The under-ground arrangements for fighting this popular, progressive measure, are complete and perfect. The whole propaganda has been adroitly planned.

One of the first steps taken has been to give out the statement, and scatter it broadcast, that the friends of the measure are opposed to submitting it to a referendum vote because they fear that when the people fully understand its provisions, they will vote against it. This charge was made by C. S. Gongwer, secretary of the Equity association, when he recently filed his petitions for the referendum. The charge has been answered promptly for the state administration by W. L. Finley, who says:

"We are not opposed to the referendum on the Green compulsory workmen's compensation act. In fact we hoped that if there were to be any referenda at all, this law would be tested, for we feel sure that the great majority of the people are for it and have no fear for the result.

"What we have been entering objections to in this matter is the schemes of purely selfish interests to get the co-operation of the farmers in this matter and attack in a similar manner the agricultural commission act. We have criticized in this matter the work of the 'professional farmers'—the fellows who are farming the farmers, and trying to commit them against this law.

"It is notorious that the Equity association, the backbone of which is composed of the employers' liability companies doing business in the state, is using money lavishly in getting up these petitions. Men are being paid at the rate of five cents a name to get the petitions signed. The leaders of this referendum movement are doing in the project what other people of the state, through the legislature last winter, have declared to be wrong.

"The Weygant law forbids this sort of thing; in fact places it under the classification of corrupt practices, and it is only because the Weygant law is not yet in effect that they are permitted to pay for these petitions. Under the operation of L and R, provisions in the constitution, the Weygant law will not become operative for ninety days following its enactment, which will defer it until about August 13.

Uncle Walt's Philosophy

This Weary World

The chinchbug, chew the corn and wheat which keeps the farmer flinching, and though he knows just where they eat, he cannot stop their chinchings. If he should buy a load of drugs and try to ease his sorrow, by killing off ten millions bugs, there'd be far more to-morrow. And so he feels misty and the bugs go on and chinch with their back action chinchings. The cutworms kill the wheat and corn with double action cutters; the farmer laves his house at morn, and views his fields, and mutters some language of magenta tint, which here must be omitted; it wouldn't make a hit in print—for children 'taint fitted. He goes to town to get relief by drinking soda fizzes, and while he tells about his grief, the cutworms wield their scissors. This sort of thing we hear each spring, and oftentimes we wonder that crops are raised at all, since they're all knocked to thunder. The farmers in the fall, indeed, bring in their loaded wagons, no consolation do they need, no comforting with taglons. So let the humble cutworm cut, the chinchbug do its carving; they doubtless are a nuisance but the farmers are not starving.

to the fact that it is none the less wrong in the estimation of the people, and is permissive now merely because the law making it a penal offense has not gone into effect yet."

HAZING OUTLAWED.

(Dayton News.)

In justice to Denison University where a hazing was reported last week, it should be stated that the alleged victim was not seriously hurt. It is gratifying to learn that his face will not be permanently disfigured. It is said that the student upon whom the trick was played does not hold resentment, and expresses regret that the leader of the crowd was expelled from college.

It is encouraging that the friends of the college have objected so strenuously to exaggerated reports about the affair. When faculty, students, alumni and others join in dispelling false reports, and to clear the name of the college, it shows hazing to be in bad repute. It used to be tolerated, now it is rigidly tabooed.

There isn't a college faculty in the country that does not regard hazing as a species of crime, and the student body frowns upon it. Hazing is only committed by irresponsible students, who imperil their standing with their fellows if their identity becomes known.

ON SECOND THOUGHT

You can get the bare facts at the barber shop, but if you wish to know the details you must interview the dressmakers.

A good woman makes trouble for only one man. A bad woman can and often does, make trouble for twenty.

When a man tries himself the jury invariably returns a verdict of "not guilty."

A widower nearly always is an active candidate for a second term.

A woman doesn't expect happiness for herself and her ambition in that respect is centered in the hope that her children may have it.

If a woman is both patient and persistent she will eventually be able to teach her husband fairly decent table manners.

The probability is that the polite man wishes to sell you something.

NO PRIMARIES IN TOWNSHIPS UNDER 2,000 POPULATION

Columbus, June 19. — No primaries will be held this year except in municipalities having 2,000 or more inhabitants, and at these primaries party candidates may be nominated for members of school boards. This is Secretary of State Graves' solution of a legislative complication. It has the endorsement of Attorney General Hogan.

An amendment to the constitution put an end to party primaries for nomination of township officers and officers of municipalities of less than 2000 population "unless petition by a majority of the electors of such township or municipality." The legislature sought to make this provision operative by providing when and where this petition should be filed, but the provision was put in the state primary law, which does not go into effect until next January. Secretary Graves holds that as there is no machinery for giving effect to this portion of the amendment in 1913, it must remain in abeyance, and that primaries may not be held in townships and under-populated villages, even if a majority of the voters wish them.

The Jung school board law requires candidates for members of school boards to be nominated by petition, though the primary law, which in this respect was not changed, provides for nomination either by primary or petition. Secretary Graves holds that this section of the Jung law may be ignored, as it was clearly not the intention of the legislature to make the law restriction which is in the Jung law.

He said today he would issue to Boards of Election a ruling in accordance with this construction of the two laws within the next ten days.

Whoever drafted the Jung bill did intend to exclude school board membership nominations from party primaries, for he inserted an appropriate amendment to section 4919, general code, which lists the primary nominations, and also changed "may" to "shall" in section 4997, G. C., which provides for making such nominations by petition.

The legislature, however, struck out the amendment which eliminated these candidates, and those to be named by primary, thus refusing to vote for this change. Therefore the failure to vote out the other amendment of like import is construed by the secretary of state to have been an inadvertence.

In townships and villages under 2000 nonpartisan ballots, with the names of candidates for all local offices grouped alphabetically under the name of the office, will be voted in November. There will be two ballots, one for school board and the other for other officers.

Origin of Agricultural Extension.

Nowadays when farmers all over the state are enjoying the benefits of Extension Schools, Demonstrations, and bulletins furnished by the state, few of them realize that this work was at first carried on by private individuals who received no pay for their service. In 1832 a number of graduates of the College of Agriculture and progressive farmers scattered over the state formed what was known as the "Student Union." This organization accomplished a great deal of good for the Agriculture of the state. One of its principal activities was the furnishing of improved varieties of seeds and the conducting of tests and demonstrations. The officers of the "Student Union" carried on the work unselfishly and effectively. Finally it grew to such size as to require larger appropriations of funds and the entire time of the persons engaged. This teaching of farmers in the field was then turned over to the College of Agriculture and A. B. Graham placed in charge.

REFINED PUNISHMENT.

The golf bug's soul came back from a little range around Satan's preserve with a smile as wide as the Amazon river.

"I say," it exclaimed, "I don't call this much of a hell. They have the finest golf course out there I ever saw in my life."

A droll looking old son, who was sitting on the safety valve looked up.

"But did you see anybody playing on it?" he asked.

"No," the newcomer admitted. "I didn't."

The old timer chuckled. "That's it," he said. "He won't let anybody play on it."—Cleveland Leader.

They Listened to the Clown.

THE circus was coming to town, and Jack and Evelyn were teasing daddy to take them to see its wonders.

"Perhaps if you are very good I may take you some day," he promised.

"We try to be good," Jack said. It was Jack who usually got into scrapes.

"We have been good for a long time, daddy," Evelyn urged.

"Yes; I haven't done a thing since the day I broke the pink geranium playing ball in the garden," Jack added.

"I'm afraid most people are naughty because they don't think," daddy said kindly. "And as to the circus, I hope it won't affect you as it did the little Brown children."

"They had never been to a circus—no, not once—when a beautiful big one came to town."

"The children spoke to Daddy Brown after the big colored posters were put up on all the fences in town, and Daddy Brown said that if they were very good he would take them to see the circus, and they were very, very good."

"When the day for their visit to the show arrived they started off as happy a little party of Browns as you would wish to see."

"They had a lovely time. They saw all the queer wild animals in their cages, and when it was time for the performance they went in and sat down and listened to the clown as he made jokes to fill in the time between acts."

"Dear, dear, was there ever a more gorgeous circus? The Browns thought not. They did not see how any one could be funnier than the clown or cleverer than the riders or acrobats, who climbed about on poles or balanced themselves on bars hung from the roof of the tent."

"The Brown children went home in raptures, and their dreams that night were all about the circus. Patty Brown dreamed that she was a lovely circus lady in a pink tulle skirt riding a beautiful white pony. Johnny dreamed that he was stepping gracefully along a high tight rope. Dolly dreamed that she was a mermaid clad in a green scaly bathing suit and diving deep into a glass tank. Jimmie Brown dreamed that he was a Japanese acrobat and could tie himself up into all sorts of knots."

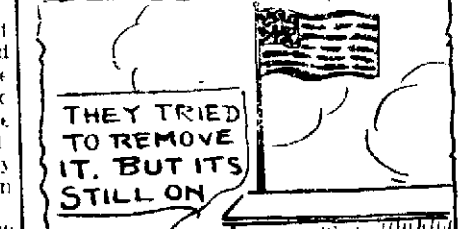

"The next morning when they got up they hurried through breakfast so that they could go out and practice. They thought of starting a circus of their own. No; they never started that circus, for Johnny sprained his ankle badly falling from the clothesline while trying to practice as a tight rope walker, and after the doctor had fixed him up Mrs. Brown said that there should be no more practicing and no more circus in that house. And this year the Browns daddy won't take them to the circus."

Daddy's Bedtime Story—

Bringing the Circus Home With Them.

THE circus was coming to town, and Jack and Evelyn were teasing daddy to take them to see its wonders.

"Perhaps if you are very good I may take you some day," he promised.

"We try to be good," Jack said. It was Jack who usually got into scrapes.

"We have been good for a long time, daddy," Evelyn urged.

"Yes; I haven't done a thing since the day I broke the pink geranium playing ball in the garden," Jack added.

"I'm afraid most people are naughty because they don't think," daddy said kindly. "And as to the circus, I hope it won't affect you as it did the little Brown children."

"They had never been to a circus—no, not once—when a beautiful big one came to town."

"The children spoke to Daddy Brown after the big colored posters were put up on all the fences in town, and Daddy Brown said that if they were very good he would take them to see the circus, and they were very, very good."

"When the day for their visit to the show arrived they started off as happy a little party of Browns as you would wish to see."

"They had a lovely time. They saw all the queer wild animals in their cages, and when it was time for the performance they went in and sat down and listened to the clown as he made jokes to fill in the time between acts."

"Dear, dear, was there ever a more gorgeous circus? The Browns thought not. They did not see how any one could be funnier than the clown or cleverer than the riders or acrobats, who climbed about on poles or balanced themselves on bars hung from the roof of the tent."

"The Brown children went home in raptures, and their dreams that night were all about the circus. Patty Brown dreamed that she was a lovely circus lady in a pink tulle skirt riding a beautiful white pony. Johnny dreamed that he was stepping gracefully along a high tight rope. Dolly dreamed that she was a mermaid clad in a green scaly bathing suit and diving deep into a glass tank. Jimmie Brown dreamed that he was a Japanese acrobat and could tie himself up into all sorts of knots."

"The next morning when they got up they hurried through breakfast so that they could go out and practice. They thought of starting a circus of their own. No; they never started that circus, for Johnny sprained his ankle badly falling from the clothesline while trying to practice as a tight rope walker, and after the doctor had fixed him up Mrs. Brown said that there should be no more practicing and no more circus in that house. And this year the Browns daddy won't take them to the circus."

An informal poll of delegates favored New Orleans for the 1914 convention, with San Francisco almost a sure winner for 1915.

EXPERT SAYS LEPROSY IS INCREASING

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)

Minneapolis, Minn., June 19.—The third day of the American Medical Association's annual convention opened at the University of Minnesota.

The political bee was working overtime. The selection of officers will be held late this afternoon as will also the city for the next meeting.

The house of delegates at its morning session adopted a resolution presented by the committee on constitution and by-laws extending the terms of secretaries of the various sections from one year to three years.

Leprosy is steadily increasing in the United States, according to Rupert Blue, surgeon general of the United States public health service. Dr. Blue's address told of the continued propagation and spread of the disease. The doctors discussed the present state and federal laws relative to the disease and urged the advisability of government supervision. Measures for the control of the disease and the care of those afflicted are absolutely necessary, declared Dr. Blue.

Medical inspection in the schools is revealing many defects in the older children, declared Dr. Walter S. Cornell of Philadelphia. The following are some of the defects shown, according to Dr. Cornell:

1. Frequency of eye strain, carious teeth, poor nutrition, and mental retardation among children.
2. Recent text books do not emphasize the results of eye strain, nasal obstruction, poor heredity, the cause of syphilis, myopia, defective hearing, discharging ear, diphtheria, scarlet fever, nervous disorders, feeble-mindedness and decay of teeth.
3. Future general medical practice should include the subjects just mentioned and consider them home hygiene, school hygiene and personal hygiene, ventilation, house cleanliness, sleep, exercise, sex hygiene, diet tobacco and alcohol.
4. The accurate knowledge of the practicing physician now mainly concerning the action of drugs, present status of general medical knowledge, the writer's experience as district inspector, general director, college instructor and medical examiner.

STATEMENT IMPLICATES OFFICIALS

It is alleged Womeldorf gave out information implicating several county officials, who, it is charged, were cognizant of irregularities in connection with supplies for the institution. The special grand jury will report next Monday morning, and indictment of several prominent persons is expected.

Womeldorf's alleged expose has created a sensation here.

MUCH DAMAGE IN FLORIDA BY TORNADO

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)

Tallahassee, Fla., June 19.—A tornado swept over this city last evening, unroofing the state capital and many stores, tearing trees out by the roots and twisting telegraph, telephone and electric light poles off at the base and cutting off communication with the outside world for hours.

The funnel-shaped cloud, carrying wind, rain and hail, swept across the county, killing and maiming live stock, damaging crops and razing buildings. So far no loss of life has been reported.

Cleveland, O., June 19.—While Aviator Al. Engel was operating his hydro-aeroplane over Lake Erie just off Rocky River today, it suddenly turned over and took a downward shoot into the lake. Engel and a passenger, he called were plunged into the water, but came up and clung to the floating machine until a motor boat from the Lakewood Yacht club put out and rescued him. Neither was hurt. The cause of the accident is not known.

NURSE'S MISTAKE MAY RESULT IN PATIENT'S DEATH

Ill from the result of an operation, Mrs. Emma Larason will probably die as the result of the carelessness of her nurse, who in endeavoring to administer an alcoholic bath mistook the bottle and applied carbolic acid instead. The front of Mrs. Larason's body is blistered from the neck to the ankles. The accident occurred at the Newark sanitarium Wednesday evening at 7:30 o'clock. The nurse was not an attache of the Sanitarium, but had been brought to Newark to care for
Mrs. Larason from Columbus by Dr.
Leach of that city, who performed the operation on Mrs. Larason Tuesday, June 10.

The operation was for tumor and the condition of the patient was extremely critical, and the nurse in attendance was ordered to administer an alcoholic bath daily. On Wednesday evening she went to the medicine cabinet where the bottles are kept labelled. The alcohol bottle and the carbolic acid had been kept side by side on the shelf, and the nurse, accustomed to finding the bottle, did not look for the label.
But the bottle had been removed and the position of the bottles had been reversed, so in reaching for the bottles she secured the wrong one.

The alcohol is applied by pouring the hands full and tossing it on the body with the massage movement.
The application is almost instan-taneous, so before the odor could be detected, the burning fluid had been administered to the patient's body.
The screams of the patient and the nurse intermingled and their cries brought a number of attendants to their assistance. Alcohol which neutralizes carbolic acid was immediately applied but the burns received were terrible.

The body of Mrs. Larason is deeply blistered from the throat down, and no hope is entertained for her recovery. The hands and arms of the nurse were also severely blistered.
The suffering of the patient for a time was agonizing, but later in the evening she was quieted and this morning found her condition to be more satisfactory than had been anticipated.

The suffering of the nurse was added to by the mental strain subsequent to her mistake and about 1 o'clock she left the Sanitarium, her destination being unknown.

Mrs. Larason is the wife of Mahlon H. Larason, of 277 Woods avenue, and is about 57 years old. She had been critically ill for some time, and it was thought that her condition was such that her strength would not warrant an operation.
However, she rallied and on Tuesday evening, June 10, she was removed from her home to the Newark Sanitarium where Dr. Leach performed an operation for tumor.

She withstood the shock of the operation, but her condition has remained extremely doubtful. What effect the accident will have upon the patient can not be determined.
The burns are very deep and practically cover the entire front of the body, this, with the shock of the accident, makes the case nearly hopeless.

Every effort is being made at the Sanitarium to ease the suffering and aid the patient to recovery and late this afternoon brought no greater complications in the case.

The name of the nurse has been withheld but it is not thought that any action will be taken against her as the affair was entirely accidental.

On Auto Tour.

Mrs. Harry Bragg of North Tenth street, left Wednesday for a trip

wards tour Pennsylvania by automobile, probably returning home the first of August.

Played at Banquet.
Kissane's orchestra played at the banquet of the Newark High school alumni association, Tuesday evening.
Credit having been given to another organization.

At Corset School in Cleveland.

& Bowman and Miss Lena Bowman have left for Cleveland where they will spend several weeks at the Cleveland Corset school.

MEDICAL MEN SAY BEDBUG SHOULD BE TAKEN SERIOUSLY

(Journal American Medical Assoc.)
The alleged humor of which the bedbug, or to give him his dignified Latin name, Cimex lectularius, has been the subject should not obscure the serious role played by the bug in common with the fly, the mosquito, the flea and the house as a conveyor of infection. Relapsing fever, bubonic plague, kala-azar, small-pox and typhoid fever have been transmitted by various species of the bedbug, and possibly the investigator might find here the explanation of otherwise inexplicable epidemics in uncleanly neighborhoods. Epidemics of small-pox have been disseminated in cheap lodging houses by this polecat among insects; and were it not for the frequent vaccinations compelled by health departments, such epidemics would very likely be more frequent than they now are. The bedbug hides during the day and sometimes hibernates during the winter. When it lacks animal food, it feeds on the juices of decayed wood or on the dust in floor cracks, and can go without food for a long time. It may continue its existence under adverse circumstances from season to season, in lumber camps, in summer houses, empty apartments and the like.
The housewife is greatly mortified by the creature's presence under her roof; but she is by no means always blame-worthy. It may get into the travelers trunk or satchel from an uncleanly hotel or sleeping car or invade the home in the laundry or on the clothing; thus Manning witnessed the migration of a bedbug across the aisle of a car from a sick man to the skirts of a party of women. Or it may migrate through walls from one house to another, sometimes in a continuous pilgrimage, especially when the dwellers of an infested house move away, thus cutting off the commissariat of the parasite. It may then escape through windows as well as walls, along water pipes or gutters to new pastures. Thus the tidest housewife may be victimized. Apart from ordinary dwellings, log cabins easily become infested; ships also entertain the bedbug in considerable degree. Poultry houses, dove cotes and the hiding places of bats may easily become infested with the bedbugs or nearly related species, and sparrows, which are often alive with the vermin, may be their portals of entry into houses.
A thorough extermination of the bedbug would result also in the extermination of other dangerous insects infesting houses. The local application of boiling water will kill a few bugs and drive others away, but serious efforts at extermination require fumigation.
Manning has called attention to bedbug extermination as one of the measures to be employed in the prevention of all diseases whose virus is present in the blood of the patient during the acute stage of the disease. Of all methods Manning says that there is none which would exceed in effectiveness the annual compulsory fumigation of all habitations of man.

THIS IS CERTAIN. The Proof That Newark Readers Cannot Deny.

What could furnish stronger evidence of the efficiency of any remedy than the test of time? Thousands of people testify that Doan's Kidney Pills have brought lasting results.
Home endorsement should prove undoubtedly the merit of this remedy. Years ago your friends and neighbors testified to the relief they had derived from the use of Doan's Kidney Pills. They now confirm their testimonials. They say time has completed the test.
Mrs. Elizabeth Starr, 89 Hancock St., Newark, Ohio, says: "I am glad to say that Doan's Kidney Pills did me a world of good. I willingly confirm the testimonial I gave in 1909 recommending them. For years I had been badly run down from kidney and bladder trouble. The complaint affected my nerves and made me weak. Hard backaches and dull, heavy headaches gave me intense suffering. I used Doan's Kidney Pills and they did me good, relieving all my suffering and restoring my strength and ambition."
For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States.

BIRD STORY FROM THE GOLF LINKS AT COUNTRY CLUB

A prominent lawyer, who mixes the law with an occasional game of golf at the Country Club is telling this story with an earnestness that vouches for its truth. He volunteers no theories or explanations about the matter, merely relating it as a fact.
Last week, while the links of the Country club, the attorney with several companions participating in the game, mounted one of the bunkers and started toward a green.
All of them stopped, more or less startled, rubbed their eyes and looked again. Lined up on the green and marching in a straight column were nine or ten robins, heads up, and eyes to the front. There was a distance of eight or ten inches between each bird and they marched toward the players. These men declare that they continued this uncanny march for a distance of several yards before the presence of the golfers frightened them away.
"There was every indication," declared the attorney, "that this march was a result of premeditation on the part of the robins. Don't ask me to explain it. I can't. It happened and that's all that can be said about it."

HOW IT WAS. "Is your wife going away this summer?" "No—I'm sending her."—Town Topics.

DIZZY HEIGHT HAS NO TERROR FOR WORKMEN

Stack on Power House Now Being Finished, 200 Feet in Air—Attracts Curious.

Two workmen swinging on a light scaffold 200 feet in the air, are putting the final hands on the tall smoke stack of the new power plant in process of building for the Licking Light & Power company, on the site of the old Thomas foundries, opposite the B. & O. railroad passenger station. While the pair of workers resembling nothing larger than flies, fasten the rivets in the great halves of metal, hundreds of people who can view them from a distance of many squares, under the nerve of the workmen.

Structural steel workers and others who think nothing of trotting along a 12-inch steel beam at a height of 20 or 30 stories pay no attention to the hazards of their occupation. The workmen on the L. & P. plant smoke stack mark up in the same class, and while their lives are entrusted to the safety of two slender supporting cables, they are observed going about their work as coolly as if it were being done on terra firma.

The big power plant will not be ready for installation of the power machinery for some time, but structural work is progressing rapidly and the brick walls are near completion. When finished it will be one of the most complete and modern plants in the state and will transmit power over an unusually large area of Central Ohio.

REGULARS AT GETTYSBURG CELEBRATION

[ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM] Gettysburg, Pa., June 19.—Practically every branch of the regular military service will be represented by bodies of enlisted men at the battle anniversary celebration next month according to an announcement made here yesterday. Next week the troops will arrive and take their places in the camp, many of them marching to Gettysburg.

The infantry will be represented by the First and Third battalions of the Fifth. The Third battalion has been doing guard duty in camp for four weeks. The First battalion will come by rail next Tuesday and bring with them the regimental band.

A battalion of engineers will march to Gettysburg and are expected to arrive on Saturday, June 28. Battery D, third field artillery, Captain M. E. Locke, commanding, will march also and are due at camp on Friday of next week. Several troops of the Fifteenth cavalry have been detailed for the Gettysburg camp, though the date for their arrival has not been set. The signal corps is already here and is establishing a complete telephone system throughout the camp, while the large field hospital is well under way at the hands of a detail.

The troops are expected to figure prominently in the exercises of the anniversary and will remain at Gettysburg for six weeks afterwards to participate in the maneuvers at the camp of college and university students to be conducted by war department officers.

The college men will be allowed to live in the soldiers' quarters, which will be allowed to stand after the battle celebration is over.

STEAMER SINKS; CREW IS SAVED

[ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM] San Francisco, June 19.—The lumber steamer Riverside, bound from Everett, Washington, to San Pedro, Cal., is in sinking condition off the northern California coast, according to a wireless dispatch today from the liner Admiral Farragut. The crew of 23 has taken to the small boats and a boat has been sent to their assistance from the Farragut.

A later message from the Farragut said the Riverside had gone down but that all members of the crew were rescued.

QUIET "KIP" IS DISTURBED BY RUDE POLICE

Police officers early Thursday morning broke into the sweet slumbers of seven homeless men, changing the scene of their sleep to the city prison. Five were arrested while sleeping in Murphy's barn in South Third street. Two others were picked up at the Pennsylvania station where they had camped for the night. All were fined $5 and costs in police court Thursday morning.

TODAY'S BEAUTY RECIPES

By Mrs. D. Mille.
Protect your complexion against the summer sun, but do it sensibly. Powder tends to enlarge the pores and causes blackheads; some face creams grow hair. The best complexion beautifier I know is made by dissolving an ounce of borax in a quart of water in a half-pint of witch hazel. Gently massage face, neck and arms with this and it will hold all day. Mayonaise corrects facial blemishes, pimples and blotches, and makes the skin fresh, smooth and lovely.
I am going to give Mother's Shampoo a plain, straightforward advertisement, simply because it is a great deal of time. It actually removes the dandruff parasite which causes itchy, brittle and falling hair. It leaves the scalp refreshed, clean and healthy and makes the hair fluffy, glossy and full of life and color.
The electric needle will remove superfluous hair, but it is expensive, painful and requires a great deal of time. To remove superfluous hair cover the skin for a minute or two with paste made by dissolving alumina in a little water. When the paste is removed the hairs will be gone.

MALE SUFFRAGETTE FOLLOWS EXAMPLE OF MISS DAVISON

[ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM] Ascot, England, June 19.—Fired by the recent example of Miss Emily Wilding Davison during the race for the Derby, a male suffragette today committed suicide by flinging himself in front of August Belmont's four-year-old Tracery during the race for the valuable Ascot gold cup. His act deprived the American sportsman of a good chance of capturing the trophy.

Waiving a flag of the suffragette colors in one hand and brandishing a revolver in the other, the militant suffragette sprang over the rails just as the field of eight horses with the American colt Tracery leading, was clearing the straight for the run home. With a loud yell, "stop," he bounded in front of the horses. Tracery collided with and felled him before Jockey A. Waller had time to avert the catastrophe.

Tracery is a son of the famous English stallion Rock Sand, for which Mr. Belmont paid $125,000, while his dam is Toplary, a mare exported from England. The colt was bred at Mr. Belmont's nursery stud in Kentucky. He finished third in the Derby at Epsom in 1912, won the Sussex stake in Goodwood in July of the same year.

Although there is little data on the subject, alfalfa silage of good quality would certainly make an excellent hog feed.

Best Laxative For the Aged.
Old men and women feel the need of a laxative more than young folk, but it must be safe and harmless and one which will not cause pain. Dr. King's New Life Pills are especially good for the aged, for they act promptly and easily. Price 25c. Recommended by F. D. Hall, 10 North Side Square, Newark, Ohio.

Come—Farm Where Success is Sure

WHY waste time and wear out your life working an Eastern farm, when land in the Sacramento Valley, California, will produce many times more net profit to the acre, with less work and worry.

Come, where there are no cloudbursts, no thunderstorms, no frosts, no snow. In Northern California the soil is as rich as that of the river Nile, in Egypt, the growing season exceeds by many days the sunshine record of Southern Italy, and irrigation makes you independent of the rain and drought.

Oranges, alfalfa, and all fruits, grains, grasses and vegetables mature four to six weeks earlier in the Sacramento Valley than in Southern California.

Stock and poultry are easier to raise and produce more because they can be kept out of doors all the year, where green feed grows in abundance.

Markets are near, with cheap railroad, river and trolley transportation.

Investigate these wonderful farms; large acreage is unnecessary.

"TWENTY-THREE PLANTS—FORTY-THREE A FORTUNE"
Read carefully this table of profits and note the production to the acre; you will then understand why farms on the Kuhn California project are money makers.

PELKY PLACED ON TRIAL TODAY

Calgary, Alta., June 19.—Arthur Pelky, the pugilist, was to be placed on trial before Chief Justice Harvey today, charged with causing the death of Luther McCarty in the first round of their fight at the Burns arena here May 21.

A large number of witnesses have been summoned from the United States. Medical evidence is expected to take up the greater part of the hearing, the defense having indicated it will show that the blow delivered by Pelky did not cause the dislocation of McCarty's neck and his subsequent death. One medical expert was brought here from Philadelphia, Pa., and many sport promoters and newspaper men have been called as witnesses.

Among the thirty witnesses who already have been subpoenaed are Du South of Chicago, referee at the fight, and Tommy Burns, Pelky's manager. Burns' trial on a charge of manslaughter probably will not be held until October.

BADLY BURNED AS RESULT OF GAS EXPLOSION

Mrs. Jennie Coyne was badly burned about the face and arms on Wednesday evening about 5 o'clock, when the gas in a kitchen range exploded.

Mrs. Coyne lives in Hoover street, and was engaged in preparing supper when she attempted to light the gas jet in the oven of the stove. It evidently leaked for the oven was filled with gas and when the match was applied a small explosion resulted. The flames enveloped the head and arms of Mrs. Coyne, burning off a part of her hair. Neighbors went to her assistance and Dr. W. S. Turner was called.

It was found that the head, face and arms were seriously blistered.

QUEER MISTAKES SEEN IN PAPERS ONCE IN WHILE

Speaking of amusing typographical errors, an old time reader of the Advocate recalled the published account of a Newark wedding in which the type declared "the bride was attired in a beautiful bouquet of white roses."

Part of the sentence had been omitted by the typesetter. Then at another time, in the report of another wedding, the printer intentionally or otherwise declared that the "unhappy couple left at 10 p. m. on a trip to the east."

At the close of a political campaign a public speaker said: "The people have chosen Mr. Marshall mayor because they like him." The newspaper reporting the speech, said: "The people have chosen Mr. Marshall mayor because they like him." Only an "a" for an "t" but what a difference it made.

Everybody remembers the obituary heading "At Rest" and recalls the laugh that followed when the type over the announcement of the death of a certain sour citizen read: "At Last."

Then there was the case of the editor who in a glowing tribute referred to Death as the "rider of the pale horse" but the linotype called it the "hole" horse.

A comma is only this big (,) but it makes a lot of trouble sometimes. This from an English journal illustrates the point:

"Lord Palmerston then entered upon his head, a white bat upon his feet, large but well-polished boots upon his brow, a dark cloud on his hand, his faithful walking stick in his eye, a dark menacing glare saying nothing."

VETERAN HOTEL MAN BACK AGAIN AT SEILER STAND

A. H. Seiler, one of the pioneer hotel men of Newark and who retired last August after many years of activity, is again the owner and proprietor of Hotel Seiler, on the old site where he established himself in the hotel business in 1880. Negotiations for the purchase of the hotel from Ed. Matthews were brought to a termination Thursday.

Mr. Seiler erected the new Hotel Seiler in 1902. Last August he sold out to the firm of Matthews & Sherrell. Six months ago Matthews bought his partner's interest and continued to conduct the house under his personal management.

No immediate changes in the house of plan of operation are anticipated by Mr. Seiler.

HORSE MARINE LIFE SAVERS AT CONEY ISLAND

(Associated Press Telegram)
New York, June 19.—Coney Island policemen mounted as horse marines have become a valuable adjunct to the life saving forces at that popular resort.

Two of the mounted patrolmen, Edwin Cody and James J. McDonald, who were on regular duty regulating traffic ashore, distinguished themselves yesterday when they swam their horses about 300 feet out to sea and rescued seven persons in a disabled motor boat.

A thirty-five foot craft was nearly swamped by a choppy sea and two women in the party, with children in their arms, were screaming for help while the throng of promenaders ashore stood helpless. But the two bluecoats, mounted on first class horses, that had been taught to swim, did not hesitate a minute.

They simply turned their charges, spurred them toward the embankment onto the beach and plunged into the surf. The tide was such that the horses had not gone more than 75 feet before they were "off their legs," and had to swim. Horses and riders bobbed up and down half submerged while a great crowd on the beach cheered their efforts.

Cody and McDonald not only reached the craft in time to rescue the women and children, but went back a second time and towed in the boat with its men occupants.

Several hysterical women wanted to hug the horses and the animals seem to derive pleasure at being so lauded.

BUCKEYE LAKE TO BE CROSSED BY A BIRDMAN

Coshocton, O., June 19.—Russell Shaw, son of Ben Shaw, formerly a resident of Coshocton, expects to make a flight across Buckeye Lake this summer in an aeroplane of his own manufacture.

Young Shaw is one of the few birdmen who have escaped injuries, at least serious hurts. He has been in only a few minor accidents. Shaw is now visiting relatives in Zanesville.

Shaw has the distinction of being the youngest birdman in the United States. Although only 19 years old he now has been flying for three or four years.

He makes aeroplanes and sells them and has been doing quite a good business. He has invented a new model on the hydroplane order and it is one of these machines he will try out at Buckeye Lake this summer before returning to his home in Indianapolis.

Russell Shaw formerly lived in Newark, residing in High street. He was experimenting with aeroplanes at that time and completed a machine shortly before removing to Indianapolis.

GENERAL MANAGER

better satisfied had the Associated Press refused to handle it entire, rather than to have it published in this abbreviated and wholly unsatisfactory manner.

"Of course I understand the Associated Press is in no sense partisan and seems to be wholly fair to all of the great interests of the country, and all that the beet sugar interests ask is that they receive the same treatment at the hands of an association that is accorded to certain refiners in New York who are pushing the free sugar propaganda with the avowed purpose of at least putting a stop to the growth of the beet sugar industry."

"Very truly yours,
"C. C. HAMLIN."

Mr. Stone said that the local correspondent of the Associated Press at Colorado Springs had no authority to make an agreement that the Associated Press would carry any statement. "I do not know who was the correspondent at Colorado Springs," Mr. Stone added. "He may have been an employee of Mr. Hamlin's paper for all I know."

In answer to Mr. Hamlin, Mr. Stone wrote October 23, 1911:

"I have your letter of October 19, and note contents. I can well understand how you feel in respect to the matter. It is certainly my desire that the Associated Press shall be just and impartial in the treatment of every matter reported by it."

"The Arbuckle statement was carried, not because it was a statement of a sugar refiner, but because its being on the general cost of living, which, as you know, has been the subject of keen interest in the United States. With the advance in the price of sugar, coffee and other necessities, there necessarily has been much feeling on the general subject."

"When your statement in answer to Mr. Arbuckle was presented it happened to be on a day and night when the President of the United States was at San Francisco, the plans for Justice Harlan's funeral were on, the McNamara trial was before the country, the world's series of baseball games were in progress, a critical situation in China existed and there was an acute political situation in Mexico. All of these things crowded our paper running from Kansas City to San Francisco, and I suppose our Denver office was forced to abbreviate your statement. I am writing to the chief of our office there asking him for an explanation regarding the matter; but I can well anticipate that this is what he will say:

"I fancy the matter will come before Congress and then I trust we will be able to give you a good hearing."

"Sincerely yours,
"MELVINE E. STONE."

"I did not know Mr. Hamlin," added Mr. Stone. "The statement that he was a member of the Associated Press, is true, but in meeting the 800 members of the Associated Press, I did not happen to remember him and I have never met him but once in my life. I would not know him if he was in this room at this moment."

"The statement in respect to the local correspondent of the Associated Press at Colorado Springs having agreed to handle for the Associated Press 650 words, I should explain in this way. The local correspondent has no power whatever to commit the Associated Press to any policy or to any agreement of that sort."

"The local correspondent had no authority to commit it, and indeed, though I do not know who he was, he may have been an employee of Mr. Hamlin's own paper."

Mr. Stone gave the committee the letter he wrote to Mr. Hagerty in charge of the Denver office of the Associated Press, Oct. 23. It asked for information as to the handling of the Hamlin statement, and concluded: "Personally, I inclined to discourage carrying long statements of a controversial nature, but inasmuch as we carried Mr. Arbuckle's statement rather fully, my judgment is that we might have handled a little more of Mr. Hamlin's provided it was prepared as briefly as our story here indicates."

Mr. Hamlin then wrote Mr. Stone, Oct. 21, 1912: "Permit me to thank you for your kind favor of the 23rd instant, and to express my appreciation of your position in the matter. I can readily understand how the situation arose and of course know the Associated Press interests to do full justice to all interests with entire impartiality. There is to be a meeting of the beet sugar interests in Chicago on Nov. 15, at which time a statement will probably be issued concerning this industry and the reasons for the present high prices of sugar. I trust it will be such a one as your association will be able to handle."

Mr. Stone's reply to that dated October 30, 1912, read:

"I have yours of Oct. 27. I am notifying our Chicago office that if the statement to be issued on November 15 comes at all within the scope of our work to handle it."

Mr. Stone at the same time wrote to John P. Gavitt, then superintendent of the central division of the Associated Press at Chicago:

"There is to be a meeting of beet sugar interests in Chicago, November 15, at which time a statement probably will be issued concerning the industry and the reason given for the present high prices of sugar. On November 15 we carried from New York a statement from John Arbuckle on this subject and I suppose that the one from Chicago will be in some sense an answer which I think in justice we ought to carry. I personally did not know anything about carrying Mr. Arbuckle's statement nor was I familiar with the contest between beet sugar and cane sugar interest."

"Please use your judgment respecting the beet sugar statement and handle it upon its news merits."

Copies of all the dispatches carried from Chicago by the Associated Press at the time of the conference of the beet sugar interest were also furnished to the committee by Mr. Stone with a letter from Mr. Hamlin, thanking him for the accuracy of the Hamlin's Press reports.

Mr. Stone testified that Mr. Hamlin's reference to the fact that the proposed statement might not be made before the Harwick committee was evidently in reply to that suggestion.

The committee did not question Mr. Stone today but Chairman Overman asked him to hold himself in readiness to appear before the committee later if they desired it.

"I am frequently more or less amused," Mr. Stone told the committee, "at the popular notion in respect to matters of this sort, perhaps I may in fairness say that both as to the Associated Press and as to all press associations and as to newspapers, I am frequently impressed that justice is done by the refusal to meet the wishes of applicants for publicity."

"Whenever a man comes into a newspaper office or into an Associated Press office and asks for publication of anything, he is met with a degree of suspicion. They all think he has some ax to grind, and he has a very poor show of securing justice. We have a rule in our service that has been in existence for many years that no publicity agent can give us anything. We will not accept anything from him."

Former Mt. Vernon Minister is Deposed for Kissing Woman

Richmond, Va., June 19.—Rev. David Francis, who saw service as pastor at Mt. When rumors of conduct unbecoming a minister reached the official board last week an investigation was begun.

Mr. Francis does not deny having kissed the woman. He maintains that his act was not prompted by any evil thought.

Aurora Paint Stands the Sun Test

Most paints on the market look as good as Aurora, in the can, or on newly completed work. But when "old Sol" gets warmed up, when the rains and the snow and the wind have had their turn, there's a different tale to tell.

Aurora paint, properly applied, will not scale or peel off. Pure linseed oil and pure lead and zinc pigments are the secret there.

Pure oil costs more and pure lead and zinc require longer and more thorough mixing. That's why some paint makers substitute inferior oil, to save cost and inferior pigments, to save time.

We believe it better to preserve the character of Aurora Paint above every other consideration.

Experienced painters will tell you the same thing. If they've used Aurora they'll recommend it, unhesitatingly, for inside or outside work.
